Photograph naturally hunting Owls in snowy conditions

Finland is famous for having good populations of northern owl species. Finnature arranges tours for Owl photography mainly during the winter season when owls can be found hunting in open fields during daytime.

This year we have naturally hunting Great Grey Owls and Hawk Owls, and possibilities also for Pygmy Owl.

This five days package includes three full and two half days of Owl photography with Finnature guide. The owls will be the main focus on this tour. Please note that photography opportunities are for naturally hunting owls. They are most active during the afternoons, so if possible, we photograph other species of interest in the mornings.
